SOURCE

1. The opposition to the Central Government reportedly planned to force the internal situation to come to a head after Tiso's execution, thus causing the Government supporters, presumably the Slovak Democratic Party, to break into factions. The Communists were allegedly not opposed to this action as it may provide the Russians with a pretext to enter the country to establish order and perhaps presage Slovakia's break from the Republic and her incorporation into the USSR.
2. The Vesna Movement is said to be insignificant.
3. A subtle campaign in villages in Slovakia is allegedly being waged. Sermons on martyrs without mentioning names are being held. It is believed that this may be an important development.
